Doctors are puzzled to trace the exact causes of precuounts, but are quite certain that it is generally fatal. Several prominent New York physicians have lately come to the conclusion that the skatting rinks are to blame for the spread of the droad disease. Write we are not prepared to dispute that point, we do know that DUFF'S PORM MALT WHISEY, which can be obtained at any druggist's or green's, assures perfect restoration. It is shoultely pure, and invigorating alike to both young and old.

No more wires can be stretched over the housetops in New York city.

JAILED FOR ASSAULT.

The Enon Toughs Arrested and Brough to This City. Last evening a posse of Springfield officers, consisting of Marshal Hughes and officers Norton, Wilson and Nicklas, took the train for Enon to bring up the men implicated in the big fight last Saturday night. They found Bob Ryan and Ed Shingledecker at their homes in town, and arrested them without trouble. Leaving them under guard at the hotel, a detachment of the party splashed their way through the heavy mud and pouring rain a mile and a half into the country to the home of Adam Sherts, where they arrested him and his son Dan. On their way out, they at tempted to jump across what they supposed to be a pool of standing water, and landed in a ditch up to their knees. When they returned to Econ, Mark Bowman, the man who was used up by the gang, treated them to a warm supper. It was somewhat laughable to see Norton insist on paying something for the set up, and jungle a bunch of keys in his pocket, while all the boys knew he dian't have a nickle about him. The Car toughs were brought to this city on the midnight train and jailed on a charge of assault, They were no strangers at the county boarding house, where three of them have been incarcerated on previous occasions.

Meeting of the Turnerfest Committee. Owing to the inclement weather last night the meeting of the Springfield Turnverein was rather small.
